RIPPERS DOWN HENDERSONVILLE IN OPENING GAME BY 18 TO 6

Delano Shook, an unheralded reserve who was a last moment choice for a starting position, played an outstanding game. Also outstanding was co-captain Dean McKinney, tackle, Bobby Morris, and center Max Wall. Opening game jitters were in evidence at the time when the Rippers made several fumbles, and on other occasions missed additional opportunities to score. However, Coach Ditt and Grindstaff were pleased with the game. Scoring for Marion—Poteat 2, Frick, 1.

FOREST CITY HANDS MARION FIRST LOSS BY THE SCORE OF 15 TO 0.

Jim Ricks, one of the co-captains, was knocked out the first half of the game and was a great loss to the team. The team as a whole was off.

MORGANTON HANDS MARION ITS SECOND LOSS OF THE SEASON. 13-0.

Marion threatened only once in the third quarter when it carried the ball to the Morganton 20 yard line, but due to an interception by Morganton, the threat was ended.

RIPPERS HIT VICTORY COLUMN AT CROSSNORE. 46-0

The Coaches emptied the bench of reserves to give the second stringers as much experience as possible.

RIPPERS DOWN HICKORY TORNADOES IN HOMECOMING GAME. 18-13.

Mickey Poteat and "Red" McKinney played outstanding on offense and Harold Huffman starred on defense. The Marion P. T. A. sponsored a wonderful dance for the school in the gymnasium.

MARION GAINS VICTORY OVER KINGS MOUNTAIN BY 7 TO 0

Frick scored on a pass from Shook in the last quarter. Delano Shook suffered a leg injury which kept him out for the rest of the season. Shook and Frick were outstanding on offense.

MARION PLAYS BEST GAME OF THE SEASON AS LENOIR BEARCATS WIN 13-6.

Frick scored on a pass from Atkins. The whole Rpiiper team played exceptionally good ball.

CANTON HANDS MARION WORST DEFEAT OF THE YEAR. 28-0

Marion played good ball until the half, but received several bad breaks.

Marions' last game for the Senior boys was a defeat 19-0. The loss was due to several costly fumbles and penalties.

Senior Class Prophecy

First we must explain why we are loose in this famous resort hotel patronized by so many of the well-known celebrities. Having fallen in love with two handsome African head-hunters, we are going on this cross-country jaunt to meet them at the Grand Canyon. We were very hospitably received by our old classmates, Wayne Gladden and Carthel Cuthbertson, co-owners of "The Mutt and Jeff Hangover." That night we were entertained at a grand shindig in the basement of the hotel where the sweet strains of "Howl and Complain with Ike McLlain" struck us as we entered the door. Featured with this band of renown was Nina Stroud, the "hot-to-go" pianist. After we had indulged in a few toddies, the Carrigan Sisters, Jana and Elvera sang a few numbers.

Startled by a commotion behind us, we saw the bouncer C. A. Frick was having a dab of trouble with weight-lifter, Wayne Bradburn, who insisted on wrapping Delano Shook around the light poles. When he found that Delano was an F. B. I. agent, he became a meek man, dropped him, and left. Our attention was then abruptly attracted by the floor-show composed of Mary Nell Tilly, Loretta Silvers, Aileen Davis, Maxine Davis, Barbara Lewis, Mildred Lonon, Joyce Young, Edith Wilson and Betty Jean Rumfelt, "The Happy Go Lovely Girls." During the entertainment, we were offered cigarettes by the cigarette girl, Vera Murdock. She almost floored the hat-check girl, Donaline Sartain, who was bringing an invite from Bobby Morris, Keith Pooser and Ronnie Ross, who were auctioning off all their worldly goods in a big sale the next day because it was necessary for them to make a trip "up the river."

When we returned to our room, we found television provided by the management. Shirley Gibson, Barbara Turner, Betty Allison, Mary Ellen Moody and Janette Mace were appearing on the Weekly Housewives Program sponsored by "Old Maids Anonymous."

The next morning we all piled on buses provided by the "Break Down Bus Line" owned by David Patterson and Frank Wright. Auction bound, on the bus we discovered Polly Seagle with her famous Toni twins. Across from us sat the famous model Esther Poole and her agent Betty Ann Bright. In the back of the bus we could hear an excited discussion from Betty Jo Pyatt, Jimmie Ruth Burnette, and Lillian Parkins on their prospects of finding new pots and pans at the auction. It seemed like old times when Bill Roland, Garland Higgins, Robert Condrey and Buddy Austin started a little music to wake up the passengers with hang-overs. Eleanor Grayson, the rich bobbie-pin heiress, was airing her furs out the windows.

Coming within "hearing" distance, we heard Dean Henline starting the auction in well paid manner. Selling anything and everything. The first purchase, which was 100 lbs. of glue, was made by Jackie Hewitt, the author of "The Life of a Gun Moll", famous for its illustrations by Jane Shiflet. The "swoon-bait" of the current movies, Donald Elliott and Doug McCras, were earnestly searching for new make-up kits.

Startled by the honking of horns, we turned to see Clarence Metcalf and Johnnie Pyatt, our bus drivers, trying in vain to stop Dorothy Anderson, Ruby Taylor, and Ann Styles from tap dancing in the middle of the road.

We saw Mary Lou Beaman browsing around in every corner hoping to find a piano for her concert tour of Europe. She finally found the one used by Barbara Fisher and Martha Steppe in their Charity floor-show in Stumptown Beer Parlour. Barbara Black, Lucille Haynes and Ruth Ann Tucker, stars of the California Dribblers, were seen looking for basketballs with orlon inner-tubing. Arnold Pyatt was also seen breezing around looking for a suitable helmet to wear on his next expedition to Ethiopia.

Joby Smith came running up so delighted with the antique furniture she had found to furnish her special box at The Yankee Stadium where she and her husband spend most of their time. About that time Roy Steppe, Ralph Hawkins, Bobby Duncan, and Guy Ellis came around with their hot-dog push carts which we hear is a very prosperous business.

Over in the corner we saw Jerry Young and Harold Warren fighting over a pair of polka-dotted shorts which they bought to wear in their Broadway hit "Ladies Prefer Polka-Dots", produced and directed by Sid Johnston and Mickey Poteat.

We saw Sybil Minnish and her agent Mable Condrey, who are just back from entertaining the troops over-seas. We saw Jewell Finley and Mary Gouge in the pantry searching for unusual salt and pepper shakers for their collection. Minnie Jane Bowman went along with all the men to find a pup tent with which to set up housekeeping as a missionary in India. Zelda Anderson and Mary Buff, just like the typical woman, were looking for new hats.

Over on the hill we heard hounds baying, horns blowing and shot-guns blasting. A calm spectator assured us it was only Max Wall, Arnold Freshour, Roger Jimison, Wilburn Huffman, and Buddy Epley on one of the coon hunts of which they are so fond.

We heard a loud thumping on one of the tables as Senator Hubert Martain was trying out his new gavel. Sybil Seagle, the lovely Ajax girl was buying all the soap available. Burrell Arrowood and Ray Huffman, the great industrialists of the age, were in the market for special thread which they use in the manufacturing of burlap sacking.

The fabulous playboy Jim Ricks was seen with his charming wife who is his fifth try. They were shopping for the large economy size yacht. Later we heard that the cops Mobby Miller and Harbery Lee were having trouble with "Red" McKinney and Jack Sprinkle. They were trying to steal pink bath-tubs. As the auction went on it began to get very hot and Emma Hensley, Shirley Noles and Joyce Haynes passed out. Dr. Katheryn Long and her nurses Bonnie Godfrey and Barbara McKinney rushed to their aid and diagnosed their case as "all shot to pieces."

Patsy Nesbitt and Hope McCall were there to get new ideas for their comic strop, "Mary's Other Husband." Pearl Whisnant, Thelma Williams, and Jean Wilson were searching for bargains for their new department store. Christine Nichols was thumbing the rack for pint-sized clothes when Lady Sheriff Doris Faye Poole came around to check up on the shop-lifters. Disc-Jockey Patsy Watkins was knee deep in old records, having the "time of her life" trying them out as flying saucers. Elaine Simpson was posing for other auction signs.

Upon arriving back at our hotel we were very much exhausted nevertheless refreshed by our class reunion.

KATER and P. L.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, (Sid Johnston) leave my ability to stay out of class to Harold Huffman—for relaxation on ball game days.

We, Doug McGraw and Donald Elliott leave our ability to stick together to the next glued couple.

We, Mary Allen Poteat and Patsy Lentz, leave our floating ability in band to B-Linda Finley in hopes that her head won't be too sore.

I, Joby Smith, leave my spiked fingernails to anyone who needs protection in basketball next year.

We, Keith Pooser and Dean Henline leave our weakness to hug girls to Travis Geouge who already has a good start.

We, Christine Nichols and Delano Shook, leave together.

We, Jim Ricks, Dean McKinney, and Mickey Poteat, leave our football career to Donnie Atkins, Roby Bolick, and Jimmy Lytle.

We, Max Wall and Roger Jameson, leave our coons to the dogs.

I, Jane Shiflet, leave my majorette position to Bobbie Landis.

We, Bill Roland and Garland Higgins, leave our ability to sing to Phifer Smith and J. C. Norman.

I, Roy Steppe, leave my beautiful handwriting to Tommy Wilson.

I, Ikey McLain, leave my ability to handle cars to R. L. Carmody.

I, Arnold Pyatt, leave my brain to the next Einstein.

I, Bobby Morris, leave my scat on the bottom of the trombone section to Lynn Ross.

We, Lucille Haynes and Mary Geouge, leave our seat on the basketball bus to Ruth Styles and Sandra Mask.

I, Hubert Martin, leave my question box to Wanda Clemmer.

We, Ronnie Ross, C. A. Frick, and Wayne Gladden leave our ways with women to Eddie Shoemaker.

We, Johnny Pyatt, Buddy Epley, Robert Condrey, and Jack Sprinkle, leave our ability to drive to all future bus drivers.

I, Guy Ellis, leave my permanent wave to Benny Rumfelt.

I, Jerry Young, leave my crew cut to Russell Smith.

We, Arnold Freshour and Wayne Bradburn, leave our bar bells to the next Charles Atlas.

I, Carthel Cuthbertson, leave my figure to Jimmy Wall.

We, Ralph Hawkins, Harold Warren, and Bobby Duncan, leave our slow pokeness to Earl Houck.

I, Wilburn Huffman, leave my determination to Bill Long.

We, Frank Wright, Clarence Metcalf, and Bobby Miller, leave our boisterous ways to Dean Ennis.

We, Harvey Lee and David Patterson, leave our quiet ways to Gene Lewis.

We, Burrell Arrowood, Ray Huffman, and Buddy Austin, leave our second helpings in the lunchroom to Luther Huffman.

We, Hope McCall and Patsy Nesbit, leave our jokes to Mrs. Finley, trusting that she will use them to the best advantage.

We, Mary Lou Beaman, Martha Steppe, and Barbara Fisher, leave our vast knowledge of music to the next Tchaikovsky.

We, Polly Seagle, Barbara Turner, Ann Styles, Janet Mace, Betty Allison, Mary Ellen Moody, leave Marion High School, to the rising Seniors, for our married lives.

We, Jewell Finley, Bonnie Godfrey, Elcanor Grayson, and Kathryn Long, leave our ability to go steady to anyone that can accomplish such a fete.

We, Betty Ann Bright, Jimmie Ruth Burnette, Lillian Parkins, Thelma Williams, and Edith Wilson, leave our quiet ways for those who want to sleep in class.

I, Esther Poole, leave the bright spot of Homecoming to the Seniors next year.

We, Elvera Carrigan, Janna Carrigan, Maxine Duncan, Mildred Lonon, Betty Jean Rumfelt, Doris Poole, Mary Nell Tilley, and Joyce Young, leave our fun and good times to anyone who can enjoy them as much as we do.

We, Minnie Bowman, Jackie Hewitt, and Nina Stroud, leave our silver-tongued oratory to Patsy Woody and Roxanne Dark.

My darling Mildred,

I suppose I'll write a few sweet lines in your bit of annual, providing it stays together long enough. Perhaps I'll ever fill up this Russian String Factory page, I doubt it but I'll try.

I'm dreadfully sorry that I won't be back next year but on some occasions I know I'll think of you. All I have to do is to look at some of these "Double-barreled, Ding, Dong, Dilly, annuals and
